So where do you start investigating?

Researching is a process

- Identifying a topic
- Analyzing the assignment so you know what you are expected to accomplish
- Writing a thesis statement
- Searching for information to support your thesis statement
- Working the information you find into the paper you are writing